CONDITIONS

It is mutually agreed that:

1. DEFINITIONS

Carrier: MEDKON LINE MANAGEMENT MARITIME AND TRADE S.A.

Container: Includes any container, flat, open top, open sided container, transportable tank or similar article of transport used to consolidate cargo.

Combined Transport: Arises when the Place of Receipt and/or the Final Destination are shown on the face hereof.

Port to Port Shipment: Arises when the Port of Loading and the Port of Discharge only are shown on the face hereof and neither the Place of Receipt, nor the Final Destination are stipulated on the face hereof.

Merchant: Shall include the Shipper, Consignee and the Holder of the Bill of Lading the Receiver and the Owner of the goods.

Goods: Shall mean the cargo described on the face of this Bill of Lading.

Interpretation: Words in the singular shall include where the context admits the plural and vice versa.

2. PARAMOUNT CLAUSE

It is mutually agreed that this Bill of Lading shall have effect subject to the provisions of the International Convention relating to Bills of Lading dated Brussels 25th August 1924 (herein after called the Hague Rules), except where legislation giving effect to the Hague Rules as amended by the protocol signed in Brussels 23rd February 1968 (hereafter called the Hague Visby Rules) is compulsorily applicable, in which case this Bill of Lading shall have effect subject to the provision of such legislation. Neither the Hague rules nor the Hague Visby Rules shall apply where the goods carried hereunder are live animals or cargo which is stated on the face hereof as being carried on deck and is so carried.

Nothing contained in this Bill of Lading shall be deemed to be a surrender by the Carrier of any of its rights and immunities or an increase of any of its responsibilities under the said Enactments or under any other statutory protection or exemption from or limitation of liability.

All limitation of liability and other provisions herein contained shall insure not only to the benefit of the Carrier, his agents, servants, vessels, employees and other representatives but also to the benefit of any independent contractor performing services to the goods.

3. CARRIER'S TARIFF

The terms of the Carrier's applicable Tariff are incorporated herein. Copies of the relevant provisions of the applicable Tariff are obtainable from the Carrier at his agents upon request. In the cases of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff the Bill of Lading shall prevail.

4. WARRANTY

The Merchant warrants that in agreeing to the terms hereof he is or has the authority of the person owning or entitled to the possession of the Goods and this Bill of Lading.

5. JURISDICTION

Any claim against the Carrier arising under this Bill of Lading shall be decided according to the Turkish Law and in the Courts of Izmir, Turkey, to the exclusive jurisdiction of which the Carrier and the Merchant submit themselves.

6. RESPONSIBILITY

(A) PORT TO PORT SHIPMENT

(i) The Carrier's obligations in respect of the goods shall begin when the goods are accepted at the Ocean vessel's rail at the port of loading and shall continue until the goods are discharged at the Ocean vessel's rail at the port of discharge. The Carrier shall not in any circumstances whatsoever be liable to any loss or damage to the goods (whether or not in his actual or constructive possession) however caused occurring before they are accepted at the Ocean vessel's rail at the port of loading or after they are discharged at the Ocean vessel's rail at the port of discharge.

(ii) Where incidental to the Port to Port shipment, prearrange, encarrange, carriage inland, storage prior to loading or after discharge from the Ocean vessel, loading or unloading of goods into or from containers or the supply of containers are required by the Merchant the Merchant hereby constitutes the Carrier as his agent with authority to enter in to any contract on his behalf and the Carrier shall be under no personal liability whatsoever or however arising as carrier, bailee or otherwise in connection with the goods.

(iii) Where incidental to the Port to Port shipment, the carrier arranges for prearrange, encarrange, carriage inland storage prior to loading or after discharge from the Ocean vessel, loading or unloading of goods into or from containers, or the supply of containers as aforesaid the Carrier shall be entitled to demand from the Merchant the full freight for the entire carriage including the charges incurred by the Carrier as agent for the Merchant. Any such charges shall be deemed freight within the definition of freight.

(iv) If notwithstanding the Port to Port shipment nature of the contract, any competent Court or Tribunal shall decide that the Carrier is liable as principal for any prearrange, encarrange, carriage inland storage or handling of goods, the Carrier's liability, if any, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of clause 6 (B) below (Combined Transport).

(B) COMBINED TRANSPORT

The carrier shall be responsible for loss or damage to the following extent but no further:

(i) With respect to loss/damage/losses occurring within the period of responsibility under clause 6 (A) (i) above, liability of the Carrier shall be determined under the aforesaid clause.

(ii) With respect to loss or damage/losses occurring outside the period of responsibility referred to under clause 6 (A) (i) above the liability of the Carrier shall be limited to the actual amount recovered by the Carrier in respect of such loss or damage from the party to whom the Carrier has sub-contracted the handling, storage, prearrange or encarrange of the goods.

(iii) The Carrier, without limitation sub-clause (ii) above, shall be relieved of liability for loss or damage where such loss or damage can be reasonably attributed either in part or in whole to:

(a) A wrongful act or omission of the Merchant.

(b) Insufficiency or defective condition of the packing in the case of goods which by their nature are liable to loss or wastage or to be damaged when not packed or when not properly packed.

(c) Compliance with the instruction of the Merchant or his agent.

(d) Handling, storage, loading, unloading, or unloading of the goods by or on behalf of the Merchant.

(e) Inherent vice of the goods.

(f) Insufficiency or inadequacy of marks or numbers on the goods, coverings or containers.

(g) Strike, lockout, stoppage or restraint of labor, from whatever cause and whether partial or general.

(h) Theft and/or attempt thereof and/or loss or damage to the goods caused by any third party.

(i) Any other cause or event whatsoever or howsoever arising unless it is proven that the loss or damage resulted from an act or omission of the Carrier done with intent to cause loss or damage or recklessly with the knowledge that loss or damage would probably result.

(iv) If it can not proven when the loss or damage occurred the loss or damage shall be deemed to have occurred outside the Carrier's period of responsibility within the meaning of clause 6 (A) (i) above.

(C) GENERAL (applicable to both Port to Port shipments and Combined Transport)

(i) The Carrier shall in no circumstances whatsoever be responsible for any direct or indirect loss or damage sustained by the Merchant occasioned through delay whether by reason of representation or otherwise by the Carrier, his servants or agents.

(ii) The Carrier shall in no circumstances whatsoever be liable for indirect, or consequential loss howsoever or wheresoever arising.

(iii) All goods tendered by the Merchant to the Carrier for carriage shall be carried in a container (with or without goods belonging to third parties, in the case of the container supplied by the Carrier).

7. CONTAINERS

(i) Unless the Merchant and the Carrier or his agent agreed in writing under the deck shipment (before or at the time of booking the loading of the goods) the Carrier shall have the option to load containers on deck without notice to the Shipper, and if they are so carried the Hague Visby Rules shall apply and the goods shall contribute in General Average.

(ii) In the case of live animals and cargo requested by the Merchant to be carried on deck and which in this Bill of Lading are stated to be carried on deck and are so carried the Hague Visby Rules shall apply and the goods shall contribute in General Average.

(iii) In the case of containers supplied by the Merchant or by the Carrier to the Merchant for the Merchant's use the following conditions shall apply:

(a) The Shipper, before using a container shall inspect it to make certain that it is clean sound and suitable for the type of cargo he is shipping and the Shipper shall have the right to reject any unsatisfactory container before use.

(b) The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever in the event of loss or damage to any of the goods directly or indirectly caused by the manner in which the goods have been packed or stored in the containers or by the unsuitability of the containers.

(c) The Merchant hereby agrees to indemnify the Carrier against all loss or loss/damage which the Carrier may sustain or incur in person which the Carrier may incur on account of personal injury or loss or damage to property due to the manner in which the goods have been packed and/or stored inside the container or due to the unsuitability of the container.

(d) The Merchant further agrees to indemnify the Carrier against any additional expenses, fines, duties and taxes which the Carrier may incur by reason of error or omission in the mark, numbers or description of the container or its contents.

(iv) In the case of the supply of a container to an agent appointed by the Carrier on the Merchants behalf, the Carrier shall be under no responsibility or liability for loss or damage to the goods caused by the unsuitability or defective condition of the container unless such unsuitability or condition be attributable to lack of due diligence on the part of the Carrier.

(v) The Carrier shall be entitled but under no obligation to open any container at any time and to inspect the contents. If it thereupon appears that the contents of any part thereof cannot safely or properly be carried further either at all or without incurring any additional expenses or taking any measure in relation to the container or its contents or any part thereof, the Carrier may abandon the transportation thereof and/or take any measures and/or incur any reasonable additional expense to carry or to continue the carriage or to store the same ashore or float under cover or in open at any place which storage shall be deemed to constitute the delivery under this Bill Of Lading. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any reasonable additional expenses so incurred.

(vi) Where containers are supplied pursuant to Clause 7 (iii) above are unpacked at the Consignee's or receivers premises the Consignee's or Receiver's are responsible for returning the empty containers clean and in a useable condition in all respect and suitable for the carriage of cargo of any description the port or place of discharge or other place nominated by the Carrier within the time prescribed to them. Should a Container not be return within the prescribed time the Merchant shall be liable for any damage loss or expenses which may arise from such nonreturn.

(vii) The Merchant agrees to indemnify the Carrier for any loss or damage to the containers or for any liability arising from any act or omission by the Carrier, his servants or Agents arising directly or indirectly from but not limited to the packing or storage of cargo in the container or the use thereof.

(viii) In the event that the Carrier agrees to transport any empty container not loaded with goods for a Merchant or any other party, such transportation shall be undertaken only in accordance with terms of this Bill Of Lading notwithstanding that no formal Bill Of Lading be issued for such return transportation.

(ix) The Carrier has no responsibility whatsoever for the functioning of reefer containers or trailers neither owned nor leased by the Carrier.

8. LIEN

(i) The Carrier his servants or Agents shall have a lien on the goods and the right to sell the goods whether privately or by public auction for all freight (including additional freight payable under clause 12) prime, dead freight, damage container damage and storage charges detention charges salvage General Average contributions and all other charges and expenses whatsoever including (not limited to) matter under Clause 12 (iii) and 13 (c) herein which are for the account of the goods or of the Merchant and for the costs and expenses of exercising such lien and such sale including legal fees and also for all previously unsatisfied debts whatsoever due to him by the Merchant. Without prejudice to the foregoing the Carrier shall be entitled to lien the Merchant's cargo and any and all of the above even though concerned with on carriage, pre-carriage and/or inland carriage whatsoever and/or storage and despite the Merchant constituting the Carrier as his Agent for the purposes of arranging such carriage and any storage. Nothing in this clause shall prevent the Carrier from recovering from the Merchant the difference between the amount due from him to the Carrier and the amount realized by the exercise of the rights given to the Carrier under this clause.

(ii) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing notwithstanding that the property in the goods shall have passed to the Endorsee of the Bill of Lading or Consignee named herein and irrespective of whether or not the Carrier shall have exercised his lien the Carrier shall be entitled:

(a) To recover from the shipper or the party on whose behalf the instruction to ship the goods was made (hereinafter referred to as the "Principal") freight, dead freight, charges (whether relating to storage loading or detention) expenses, prime, general average contribution or demurrage due under this Bill of Lading which in fact remains unpaid (whether or not in the case of freight charges there is any stipulation on the face of the Bill of Lading to the effect freight/charges have been paid or are payable at destination).

(b) To recover from the Shipper of the goods or the principal the replacement value of any container consigned to the Consignee/Receiver's premises and not returned by any reason of being lost/detroyed within the time prescribed under Clause 7 (v) hereof to the port or place of discharge and/or any loss/expenses that may directly arise from such non-return and/or the cost of repairing the said container where the same has become damaged (whether or not by the fault or negligence of the Receiver/Consignee, their servants or Agents after the Carrier has consigned the same to the Receiver/Consignee. In the case of a leased container the replacement value shall be deemed to be the value of the container in the lease agreement.

(c) To recover from the Shipper (or the Principal) of the goods all, duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses, loss or damage referred to in Clause 12 (iii) above.

9. BOTH TO BLAME COLLISION CLAUSE

If the ship comes in to collision with another ship as result of the negligence of the carrier in his ship and any act, neglect or default of the Masters, Mariners, pilots or the servant of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship, the Owners of the goods carried hereunder will indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability to the other non-carrying ship or her Owners so far as such loss or liability represent loss of or damage to or to claim whatsoever of the Owners of the said goods paid or payable by the other or non carrying ship or her Owners to the Owners of the said goods and set off, recouped or recovered by the other or non carrying ship or her Owners as part of their claim against the carrying ship or Carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the Owners Operators or others in charge of any ship or objects other than or in addition to the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect to a collision or contact.

JASON CLAUSE WAR RISKS CLAUSES 1 AND 2 are deemed to be incorporated in this Bill of Lading.

10. GENERAL AVERAGE AND SALVAGE

(a) General average shall be payable according to York-Antwerp Rules 1974 and shall be adjusted at any port or place selected by the carrier.

(b) In the event of accident , danger, damage or disaster before or after the commencement of the voyage, resulting from any cause whatsoever whether due to negligence or not for which or for the consequence of the negligence or not is not responsible, the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the said salvaging vessel or vessels belonged to strangers. Such deposit as the Carrier or his agents may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the goods and any salvage and special charges thereon shall be required to be made by the goods. Shipper/consignee and/or Owners of the Goods to the Carrier before delivery.

11. NOTIFICATION AND DELIVERY

(1) Any mention herein of parties to be notified of the arrival of the Goods is solely for information of the Carrier and failure to give such notification shall not involve the Carrier in any liability, nor relieve the Merchant of any obligation hereunder.

(2) Where the Carriage called for by this Bill of Lading is a Port to Port Shipment the Carrier shall be at liberty to discharge, re-load or any part thereof without notice, directly they come to land at or on to any wharf cart or place on any day and at any time whereupon the liability of the Carrier (if any in respect of the Goods or that part thereof discharged as aforesaid shall wholly cease notwithstanding any custom of the port to the contrary and notwithstanding that any charges due or other expenses may be or become payable.

The Merchant shall take delivery of the Goods upon discharge. All expenses incurred by reason of the Merchants failure to take delivery of the Goods as aforesaid shall be for the Merchant's account.

(3) Where the Carriage called for by this Bill of Lading is Combined Transport the Merchant shall take delivery of the Goods as aforesaid (in the time provided for in the Carrier's applicable Tariff (see clause 3).

(4) If delivery of the goods or any part thereof is not taken by the Merchant at the time and place when and where the Carrier is entitled to call upon the merchant to take delivery thereof whether the carriage called for by this Bill of Lading is a Port to Port Shipment or Combined Transport the Carrier shall be entitled without notice to unload the Goods or that part thereof if stored in Containers and/or to store the Goods of that part thereof ashore, afloat, in the open or under cover at the sole risk of the Merchant. Such storage shall constitute due delivery hereunder and thereupon the liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods or that part thereof shall be at an end.

(5) If the Merchant fails to take delivery of the Goods within thirty days of delivery becoming due under sub-clause (2) or (3) above or if in the option of the Carrier they are likely to deteriorate, decay, become worthless or incur charges whether for storage or otherwise in excess of their value and whether the carriage is a Port to Port Shipment or Combined Transport the Carrier may without prejudice to any other rights which he may have against the Merchant without notice and without any responsibility whatsoever attaching to him, sell or dispose of the Goods and apply the proceeds of sale in reduction of the sums due to the carrier from the Merchant in respect of this Bill of Lading. 12. FREIGHT AND CHARGES

(i) Freight on the goods shall be deemed earned when the goods are received for shipment, and shall be paid vessel and/or goods lost or not lost. The freight together with charges shall be due and paid to the Carrier at the port of shipment (unless otherwise agreed) at the time of the vessel sailing in the required freely of exchange of the currency calculated at the means of the closing rates of exchange in Turkey at the time of the vessel sailing.

(ii) Interest shall be paid on any freight prime and charges remaining unpaid after due date of payment. The freight payable hereunder has been calculated and based upon the particulars of the goods furnished by the Shipper to the Carrier. The Carrier shall be entitled at any time to open and to re-weigh or re-measure or re-value any goods and if the weight or measurement or value as furnished by the Shipper is found to be incorrect, the Merchant shall be paid by the Carrier on the excess weight or measurements or value so ascertained together with the expenses incident to re-weighing or re-measuring or re-valuing which expense shall be considered as freight. The Merchant shall, if required by the Carrier so to furnish forthwith on demand to the Merchant the invoice or a true copy thereof relating to the goods.

(iii) The Merchant shall comply with the regulations and requirements of Port, Customs and other Authorities and shall be liable for all duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses, loss or damage of whatsoever nature imposed on the goods or the Carrier/Vessel in connection therewith. In the event of goods not complying with the regulations or other regulations at the port of discharge any of the aforesaid matters, arising and entry being refused by the Port, Customs or other appropriate Authorities, Carrier shall be at liberty to bring back or re-ship such goods to the port of shipments at the sole risk and expense of the Merchant. The Carrier shall be entitled to recover the costs by reason of the compliance with these regulations or requirements whether caused by negligence or not.

(iv) The Merchant shall further be liable to pay on demand day by day all storage charges and/or demurrage charges in regard to containers (as defined herein) in accordance with the tariff which may be obtained from the Carrier.

13. CARRIER'S LIABILITIES IN THE EVENT OF BLOCKADE, DELAY, ETC.

In case of war, hostilities, strike, port congestion, lock-outs, stoppages, civil commotions, quarantine, ice storm on any other cause whatsoever beyond the Carrier's control (whether any of the foregoing are actual or threatened and whether or not existing or anticipated at the commencement of the voyage) which matters or any of them in the judgment of the Master or Carrier (either of whose decision shall be absolute and binding on all parties) may be in the interest of the goods or the safety of the vessel, the Carrier may, without notice, re-warehouse or store the goods in any place which he may deem fit and shall be at liberty to do so.

(b) Without prejudice to the Carrier's right subsequently to abandon the Carriage under (a) above, continue the Carriage. In any event the Carrier shall be entitled to full Charges on Goods received for Carriage and the Merchant shall pay any additional cost resulting from the above-mentioned circumstances.

(2) The liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods shall cease on the delivery or other disposition of the Goods in accordance with the orders or recommendations given by any government or authority or any person acting or purporting to act as or on behalf of such government authority.

18. SUBSTITUTION OF VESSEL, TRANSHIPMENT, FORWARDING

Whenever the Carrier or the Master may deem it advisable, or, in any case, where the goods are consigned to a point where the vessel does not expect to discharge, the Carrier or Master may without notice, transship the whole or any part of the goods at the original port of shipment, or any other place or places even though outside the scope of the voyage or the route to or beyond the port of discharge or the destination of the goods, and forward the goods, to the port of destination by any vessel, vessels or other means of transportation by water or by land or by air or by any such means, whether operated by the Carrier or by others and whether departing or arriving or scheduled to depart or arrive before or after the vessel expected to be used for the transportation of the goods. This Carrier in making arrangements for any transshipping or forwarding vessel or means of transportation shall be considered solely as the forwarding agent of the Merchant and without any responsibility to the Carrier. The carriage by any transshipping or forwarding carrier and all transshipment or forwarding shall be subject to all the terms whatsoever in the regular form of Bill of Lading, freight note, contract or other shipping documents used at the time by such Carrier, whether issued for the goods or not, and even though such terms may be less favorable to the Merchant than the terms of this Bill of Lading. Pending or during transshipment the goods may be stored ashore or afloat at their expense and this Carrier or his Agent shall not be liable for loss or damage to the goods after discharge from his vessel, howsoever such loss or damage arises, including damages and losses due to deterioration or delay, even if the goods are in the custody of the Carrier, his Agent or put into bulk or craft belonging to the Carrier or his Agent. The Carrier may delay forwarding awaiting a vessel of conveyance in his own service or with which he has established connections. The responsibility of this Carrier shall be limited to the part of the transport performed by him on vessels owned by him and no claim be acknowledged by the Carrier for damage
